

Dominic J. DeJoseph

I'm a working professional in my 40s and I recently took two classes at the Educational Alliance Art School. The classes were great. Closing such a resource for the sake of making more money would be a shame. I'm hoping the Art School might be able to remain in place on the 5th floor where the facilities are currently in place. The classrooms need the light they get from the large windows.