

Jean Standish

I was appalled to learn that due to the renovations to the art school at the Educational alliance the painting classes would be consigned to the basement with fluorescent lighting and that the welding and stone carving studios would cease to exist.

This is not "upgrading and expanding" the art department; it is diminishing it. This is a severe blow to an important resource in the community. Please do not destroy this school.