

John L. Silver

The Educational Alliance has always been a heaven for representational artists whose organizations could not find other places to hold their Exhibitions. This is an historic school and its location should not be changed for any reason. I have participated in community outreach in the form of drawing instruction in the park across the street.