

John Silver

There have been many important Exhibitions in The Ed. Alliance Gallery. Some have lead to museum acquisitions of relatively unknown artists in need of recognition. This kind of thing never could have occurred without such a place. This Gallery along with the art school need to be protected as treasures that belong to the entire cultural community of America.