

Kathy Pun

The suggested renovations to the Art School do not sound progressive by any means, so I must wonder what the reasoning is behind it. I have taken art classes at EA in the past and can not express how important this space is to the community. It provides creative outlets, social interactions, skill development and exploration of artistic ability in a welcoming environment. Please do not minimize the importance of these opportunities especially in this big city in this day and age.