

Lesley Slepian

I have studied in the art program for 3 years and sent my teen age son this year. The art school is an amazing contribution for the community and all those who are interested in pursuing fine arts vocationally and for pleasure. Please don't take it away.