

Marcia Klein

The EA has long been a community based school used and appreciated by its neighbors and friends. The art school is particularly essential as there are few others so affordable, with such good quarters. So please include in your renovations a viable and usable facility for all artists.