

Rebecca Lepkoff

I believe that the art school should not be diminished and the photography department should not be eliminated. I taught at the photo school at the Educational Alliance in the 1960's and some of the students did some very important work. The camera is a wonderful way of seeing the world and please think about this.