

Silviana Goldsmith

I once visited the school and was impressed with the atmosphere and the quality of instruction. In addition the school is historic in the number of famous artists who taught there. It is important to keep a community school that is affordable and support the arts in the community.