

Tammy Wofsey

Artists need light and dedicated classrooms. The so called lower level is unacceptable. If the Art Alliance is a community based organization reaching out to everyone then, discussion needs to be created with this renovation. The students using classroom space have to be heard and allowed consideration.